Hymn 279 – In your pentecostal splendour

1. In your Pentecostal splendour rise, O living God, arise; smoke of battle blurs and blinds us; blow your wind and clear our eyes: Hallelujah, Hallelujah! You are God of victories!
2. You of old did lead your people through the desert as they went; you upon the mount to Moses did our tenfold rule present. Hallelujah, hallelujah! You are law and covenant!
3. Christ who stooped to die for sinners, you have raised to highest place; he, captivity led captive, bring forth gifts for all our race. Hallelujah, hallelujah! You are giver of all grace!
4. You at Pentecost did shower gracious rain from heaven above; on all flesh did pour your Spirit, silver-winged descending dove. Hallelujah, hallelujah! You are liberty and love!
5. Let the fire of your near presence melt our fears, like wax, away; touch our lips with songs of courage; teach us with your saints to say, Hallelujah, hallelujah! You will guide us all the way!

Hymn 282 – Filled with the Spirit's power

1. Filled with the Spirit's power, with the Spirit's power, with one accord the infant church confessed its risen Lord. O Holy Spirit, in the church today no less your power of fellowship display.
2. Now with the mind of Christ set us on fire, that unity may be our great desire. Give joy and peace; give faith to hear your call, and readiness in each to work for all.
3. Widen our love, good Spirit, to embrace in your strong care all those of every race. Like wind and fire with life among us move, till we are known as Christ's and Christians prove.

Hymn 281 – Wind who makes all winds that blow

1. Wind who makes all winds that blow – gusts that bend the saplings low, gales that heave the sea in waves, stirrings in the mind's deep caves – aim your breath with steady power on your church this day, this hour. Raise, renew the life we've lost, Spirit God of Pentecost.
2. Fire who fuels all fires that burn – suns around which planets turn, beacons marking reefs and shoals, shining truth to guide our souls – come to us as once you came: burst in tongues of sacred flame! Light and Power, Might and Strength, fill your church, its breadth and length

3. Holy Spirit, Wind and Flame, move within our mortal frame. Make our hearts an alter pyre, kindle them with your own fire. Breathe and blow upon that blaze till our lives, our deeds and ways, speak that tongue which every land by your grace shall understand.

Hymn 287 – O God, whose fire lit the stars

1. O God, whose fire lit the stars and set them in their course: you are life's origin and end, the vast creation's source. Come, touch us who were formed from dust and set our hearts ablaze that life and breath may rise to you, a sacrifice of praise.

2. O Christ, in whom God's holy fire blazed forth in human form: in you God's truth has touched the earth in love made crucial form. May we, your living body now, enkindled by that flame, by glowing word and loving deed make known your glorious name.

3. O Spirit, as at Pentecost you fell, a living flame, and sent the chosen twelve abroad the gospel to proclaim: descend on all you call today to serve a servant Lord. Ignite their praying hearts till they are burning with your word.

4. Praise God who makes all stars to shine! Praise Christ who conquered night! And praise the Spirit by whose gifts our faith will end in sight! Sing praises to all the Trinity, creation's life and light, one holy fire, a three-fold flame forever burning bright!
