³¹ The time is coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with Israel and Judah.

³² It will not be like the covenant I made with their forefathers when I took them by the hand and led them out of Egypt. Although they broke my covenant, I was patient with them, says the Lord.

³³ But this is the covenant which I will make with Israel after those days, says the Lord; I will set my law within them and write it on their hearts; I will become their God and they shall become my people. ³⁴ No longer need they teach one another to know the Lord; all of them, high and low alike, shall know me, says the Lord, for I will forgive their wrongdoing and remember their sin no more.

The New Testament Scripture reading is received from Luke chapter 8, verses 1-3, which can be found on page 81 in the new testament of your pew bible...

After this he went journeying from town to town and village to village, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. With him were the Twelve ² and a number of women who had been set free from evil spirits and infirmities: Mary, known as Mary of Magdala, from whom seven devils had come out, ³ Joanna, the wife of Chuza a steward of Herod's, Susanna, and many others. These women provided for them out of their own resources.

May the Lord God help us to apply this scripture in our lives.
