Psalm 2

REFRAIN I Irish, tr. Mary Byrne

SLANE
trad. Irish

Still be my vi - sion, O Ru - ler of all.

- ¹ Why do the nátiōns cóñspíre,
and the peoples plót ín váin?
- ² The kings of the earth set themselves,
and rulers take cóunsel tógéther
against the LÓRD and the Lord's anóintéd, sáying,
- ³ “Let us burst their bónds ásúnder,
and cast their córds fróm ús.”
- ⁴ The One who sits in the héavéns láughs,
and has them ín dérisión.
- ⁵ Then God will speak to them in wrath,
and terrify them in fúrý, sáying,
- ⁶ “I have set my king on Zion, my hólý híll.” R
- ⁷ I will tell of God's decree;
the Lord sáid tó mé,
“You are my son;
today I have begóttén yóu.
- ⁸ Ask of me, and I will make the nátiōns yóur héritage,
and the ends of the earth yóur pósséssion.
- ⁹ You shall break them with a ród óf íron,
and dash them in pieces like a póttér's véssel.” R
- ¹⁰ Now therefore, O kings, be wise;
be warned, O rulers óf thé éarth.
- ¹¹ Serve the LÓRD
with féar ánd trémbling;
- ¹² humble yourselves befóre thé Lórd
lest God be angry, and you perish ín thé wáy;
for God's wrath is quickly kíndled.

Blessed are all who take refuge ín thé Lórd. R
