Hymn 187 – We have come at Christ’s own bidding

1. We have come at Christ’s own bidding to this high and holy place, where we wait with hope and longing for some token of God’s grace. Here we pray for new assurance that our faith is not in vain, searching like those first disciples for a sign both clear and plain.
2. Light breaks in upon our darkness; splendour bathes the flesh-joined Word; Moses and Elijah marvel as the heavenly voice is heard. Eyes and hearts behold with wonder how the law and prophets meet: Christ, with garments drenched in brightness, stands transfigured and complete.
3. Strengthened by this glimpse of glory, fearful lest our faith decline, we like Peter find it tempting to remain and build a shrine, but true worship gives us courage to proclaim what we profess, that our daily lives may prove us people of the God we bless.

Hymn 186 – Swiftly pass the clouds of glory

1. Swiftly pass the clouds of glory, heaven’s voice, the dazzling light; Moses and Elijah vanish; Christ alone commands the height! Peter, James, and John fall silent, turning from the summit’s rise downward toward the shadowed valley where their Lord has fixed his eyes.
2. Glimpsed and gone the revelation, they shall gain and keep it’s truth, not by building on the mountain any shrine or sacred booth, but by following the Saviour through the valley to the cross and by testing faith’s resilience through betrayal, pain and loss.
3. Lord, transfigure our perception with the purest light that shines and recast our life’s intentions to the shape of your designs, till we seek no other glory than what lies past Calvary’s hill and our living and our dying and our rising by your will.

Hymn 548 – Let us break bread together

1. Let us break bread together on our knees; let us break bread together on our knees;
Refrain: when I fall down on my knees with my face to the rising sun, O Lord, have mercy on me.
2. Let us drink wine together on our knees; let us drink wine together on our knees; Refrain
3. Let us praise God together on our knees; let us praise God together on our knees; Refrain
