⁸But you, Israel my servant, you, Jacob whom I have chosen, race of Abraham my friend, I have taken you up, have fetched you from the ends of the earth, and summoned you from its farthest corners, I have called you my servant, have chosen you and not cast you off: fear nothing, for I am with you; be not afraid, for I am your God. I strengthen you, I help you, I support you with my victorious right hand. Now shall all who defy you be disappointed and put to shame; all who set themselves against you shall be as nothing; they shall vanish. You will look for your assailants but not find them; all who take up arms against you shall be as nothing, nothing at all. For I, the Lord your God, take you by the right hand; I say to you, Do not fear; it is I who help you, fear not, Jacob you worm and Israel poor louse.

The New Testament Scripture reading is received from John chapter 14 verses 15-21, which can be found on page 132 in the new testament of your pew bible...

¹⁵If you love me you will obey my commands; and I will ask the Father, and he will give you another to be your Advocate, who will be with you forever – the Spirit of truth. The world cannot receive him, because the world neither sees nor knows him; but you know him, because he dwells with you and is in you. I will not leave you bereft; I am coming back to you. In a little while the world will see me no longer, but you will see me; because I live, you too will live; then you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me and I in you. The man who has received my commands and obeys them – he it is who loves me; and he who loves me will be loved by my Father; and I will love him and disclose myself to him.'

May the Lord God help us to apply this scripture in our lives.
